VICTORIA CROSS

DEFENCE OF RORKE'S DRIFT 1879.

AND

SOUTH AFRICA MEDAL WITH CLASP, 1877-8-9.

Spunk Corporal (afterwards Sergt.-Instructor) William Allen, 2/24th
Foot, fine and rare

1 72

* * * To this man's undaunted bravery at the Defence of Rorke's Drift, Jan'y. 22, 1879, when, with Fredk. Hitch, he held a most dangerous and difficult position, the removal of the wounded and sick patients from the burning hospital across to the Inner Defence was able to be accomplished. Severely wounded he still held his post, raked by a heavy fire from the Zulus on the adjacent hill. When the wounded had been removed and his post was no longer tenable, he served out ammunition to the holders of the barriade.—vide History of the Victoria Cross, p. 247.

AND

BASUTO WAR, 1879.

// Private F. Fitzpatrick, 94th Foot (now 2nd Batt. Connaught Rangers), fine and rare

2 412

* * * Sekukuni's Town was the stronghold of a native chief in South Africa who caused us much trouble to reduce and capture in 1879, long after the Zulu War was ended, and out of which it arose. On November 28, Lieutenant J. C. Dewar, King's Dragoon Guards, fell severely wounded. He was, with the exception of Private Fitzpatrick and Private Flawn (to whom the Victoria Cross was also awarded), practically alone, having under his command only six of the native contingent. These were proceeding to carry him down a steep hill, when suddenly about forty of the enemy, spears in hand, appeared in pursuit, whereupon the wounded officer was dropped and deserted by all but the two Irishmen, one of whom bore him on his back, while the other fired at the oncoming enemy. Alternately, one bearing and the other defending, he was eventually carried off into safety—vide History of the Victoria Cross, p. 261.
